

October 2009 Market News

2009 Market Dates

Fourth Saturday of each month (except for Christmas):
28th November (Toy Run & Stallholder's Christmas Party),
Christmas: Sunday 20th December (Santa's visit)

Hi everyone, from Jill (the Editor), via Jane (Coordinator),
Due to 'technical errors' Jill has a month off this month.... Not only is Jill's computer playing up, but mine also. Bloody things!
Enjoy the Folk Festival this month and have a successful Market today.
Regards from Jill and Jane

The ad below should be changed as follows, our apologies to Phillip and Kate – go and support them!

YUNGABURRA FOODMARKET & NEWS

Open 7 am to 7pm Seven days a week: ATM and Golden Casket

FROM THE COORDINATOR

Good morning Stallholders,
Happy Folk Festival guys – hope you enjoy our traditionally busiest Market of the year. Of course, the waiting list has been really long this month, so I really hope that we are full, with no No Shows.....
As I type this, the weather forecast for the week is not too flash – I know we need rain badly, but could we please have a nice day just for the fourth Saturday?? Although, the grass on the Grounds is non-existent at the moment, so I don't mean to complain!
Here's to a happy and issue free day today (and every day!). Hoping you have a really good Market.
See you Next Month, Jane ☺

EXTRA TOILETS

As with every year the Yungaburra Folk Festival coincides with our Market this morning. As per last year, we have extra toilets organised and hope that this will alleviate some of the queues. A reminder that stallholders can also use the loos at the servo – Yungaburra Pit Stop.

FROM THE COMMITTEE

We would appreciate Stallholders helping our Volunteer Money Collectors by having the correct change available for site fees, when they are collected. As most of you are aware, your site fees are collected by P&C volunteers, who are giving an hour of their time on a Saturday morning, to help out their school. Recently there have been some small issues, so we ask that Stallholders (as most of you already do!) treat our volunteers with courtesy and respect. Unfortunately, lack of sales for you, should not require volunteers to have to return to you later – we know that times are tough, but this shouldn't affect others helping out. Thanks for your cooperation.

STALLHOLDERS UPDATE

Congratulations to Frank and Maria Cuda (K11 for nearly 14 years) on their recent 60th wedding Anniversary – well done guys!
To keep up with recent months, there were 7 No Shows, with a nearly full market again last month. We farewell permanent Stallholders from D9 & 10 Toni Northage and K33 Jan Thomson. This month we welcome permanent stallholders: three table sites - B11 Clara Booker (back again), B10 Juanita and B17 Jacinta and then three gazebo sites - D15 Lee Hendry & Robyn Pearson, K33 Gabby, P1 Bec and Heidi. We also welcome back Len and Dianne at A11 after Len's illness and treatment.

INNISFAIL HIGH SCHOOL BAND

At some stage in the morning we will squeeze in the Innisfail High School Band, who will be returning from camp today. We plan to fit them in on the hill behind the Information Booth. Hopefully they will enjoy the opportunity of a spontaneous gig, before a pretty eclectic audience! If you hear them and can get a minute, pop over and give some support to our next generation of performers.

PINK RIBBON COLLECTIONS

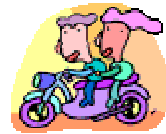

Most of you know the lovely Lee with her pink scooter and furry doggy helpers, who will again be cruising around our Markets this morning, to fundraise for the Pink Ribbon Campaign. Keep an eye out for Lee, (she is hard to miss!!) as she has a huge target to beat from last year's Yungaburra Markets.

NOVEMBER MARKET

A reminder to all stallholders that, if you think this month is a big one, for the next two months there is even more happening.....

Toy Run

Don't forget to bring along your donations for the Annual Tablelands Toy Run next month. The P&C set up a table down near the toilets/Tourist Info sign where we provide fresh fruit (from our Stallholders of course) and cold water to the hoards of riders, who give so generously every year. You will certainly hear them coming at around 9.30am and they really are an awesome sight.

Stallholders Christmas Get Together

As usual we invite all stallholders to drop by at the P&C Information Booth for some nibbles and refreshments after the November Market. This is a chance for a quick mingle, and so you can collect your 2010 Yungaburra Market Calendar, as well as a small gift, which is our way of saying thanks for your support throughout the year. Hope to see you there.

Christmas

Another reminder of the date for the Christmas Market: Sunday 20th December 2009. On that day we will have a visit from Santa, as well as the judging of the Best Dressed Stall.

Get your Festive decorations out and get into the spirit: the top 6 stallholders will win wine, which never goes astray this time of year!

STOCK SECURITY

With the next three months Markets being so much busier, we remind Stallholders that the P&C heard reports of issues with theft in the later part of the year. This is a difficult matter to police, especially unless offenders are caught red-handed, so please be extra vigilant with your stock over the rest of "silly season".

Relay for Life

The Yungaburra Centenary Seniors are doing fundraising from the Info Booth today, please give....

Leather bound journals

There has been a request for handmade leather journals – can you please let the Info Booth know if this is your product, or if you know someone who makes them? Thanks.
